Kyle's Korner

If you haven't heard, there are many people that are excited about August 21, 2017. A friend of mine mentioned it was her birthday, but that's not what it's about. The Oak Ridge Boys are playing the Wilson County Fair, but it's not about that, either. All of the excitement is centered on the solar eclipse.

People are making a variety of changes to their daily routines to make sure they can see the eclipse. Special glasses are being purchased. Schools are closing. T-shirts are being made. This eclipse is altering the lives of many, even if it is only for a day.

What if we could know when the day of Christ's return would be? Would those who are lost make preparation (as those excited about the eclipse are) to make their hearts right with God? Would there be those that obeyed the gospel before His return or those who repent and rededicate their lives to Him? Would people be as excited about His return as they are about the eclipse?

The fact is that many will be unprepared for the day of judgment. Jesus told a parable of wise and foolish virgins (Matthew 25:1-13). The wise took extra oil for their lamps, but the foolish did not and had to buy some. The bridegroom returned unannounced, and the foolish were absent.

You may be prepared for the eclipse on Monday, but what if Jesus comes before that? Are you prepared for judgment? What do you need to do to ensure your eternity will be with God?
