

GUEST SPEAKER

JOEY FERRELL is our guest speaker for today.

ABOUT JOEY

Joey resides in Morrison, Tennessee with his wife and family. He is the Director of Operations of TGOCC with shared responsibilities in Public Relations, Internet, studio manager, broadcast and social media. He also coordinates our Field Rep program and works alongside Ben and Beverly as the management team.

Joey holds an Associates Degree in Business Management from Motlow State and a Bachelor of Science Degree in Bible and Ministry from Amridge University.

Joey is not just "filling in" for Kyle today. During our Bible School hour, he will be sharing with us information about The Gospel of Christ. He will then be presenting a lesson for our 10am Worship service.

More information about THE GOSPEL OF CHRIST may be found on their website and Facebook pages (below).

OUR HISTORY

Started on June 16, 1996, The Gospel of Christ (TGOC) is an evangelistic effort overseen by the elders of the Red Hill church of Christ in Manchester, Tennessee. The work is fully supported worldwide by both congregations and individual members of the churches of Christ. TGOC's goal is to take the whole gospel to the whole world. It is not just our motto – it is our mission!

In a world where many have compromised the truth and are preaching “ ‘Peace, peace!’ When there is no peace”, (Jeremiah 6:14), our program seeks to teach and preach the whole counsel of God – regardless of the consequence (Acts 20:27; Galatians 4:16).

OUR MISSION

The Gospel of Christ (TGOC) program is an ongoing evangelistic effort overseen by the elders of the Red Hill church of Christ in Manchester, Tennessee. This work consists of faithful Christians who join their talents and efforts together in seeking and saving the lost (including personal evangelism, TV, Radio, Internet, FREE media, Bible Class Curricula, etc.). The primary purpose and goal of TGOC is to take the whole gospel to the whole world in our generation while at the same time putting a special emphasis on strengthening the Lord's church in the United States (Mark 16:15-16; Acts 20:20; 14:21-22; Col. 1:23).

We want others to know we are not interested in hiding the truth, compromising the truth, or apologizing for the truth. We speak the truth (Gal. 4:16) in love (Eph. 4:15). We do this because eternal, precious souls are at stake, and true love demands that we do whatever it takes scripturally to give men the opportunity to hear the truth and obey God (Eph. 4:15; Acts 20:27; 1 Peter 4:11; 2 Thess. 1:7-9). We also realize that the Lord's church is in grave danger in the United States, and we must get back to a more focused work here at home (not just overseas). Therefore, our work also includes evangelism in the United States and reaching the lost in their neighborhoods.

LAST WEEK'S QUESTION AND ANSWER

Which of the following is NOT one of the seven churches mentioned in the book of Revelation?

ANSWER: C. Antioch

The correct answer is C, Antioch. The book of Revelation begins with Jesus giving instruction to his servant John to “write what you see in a book and send it to the seven churches, to Ephesus and to Smyrna and to Pergamum and to Thyatira and to Sardis and to Philadelphia and to Laodicea” (1:11). The seven churches mentioned were prominent early Christian churches located in modern-day Turkey.
