

Kyle's Korner

The original message of our Lord (and of John, the Baptizer) was: "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." (Matthew 3:2; 4:17) This message was to the Jews, who had wandered away from God's will. They had failed to keep the commandments faithfully, as they were given by God. The Pharisees, the religious leaders of the day, focused too heavily on the letter of the law, often missing the point and making their own laws and traditions along the way. (Matthew 15:3-9) They needed to repent of "this, their wickedness," for the establishment of God's kingdom and His church was quickly to come.

We live in a quickly changing world full of sinful behavior and desires. There are many who, if they have ever loved God, have left Him for worldly pleasures. There are many that we know who are in need of repentance, that they should turn back to faithfulness and obedience to God.

Much is said of love these days, mostly in terms of acceptance of all, regardless of who they are or what they do. But truthfully, if someone is living in sin, is acceptance what they need? Do they not need to turn away from their sins, turning instead toward God and doing His will? Do we truly love our family and friends enough to tell them the truth about their spiritual condition?

While our loved ones may demand that we love and accept them for who they are, are we helping them by ignoring their promised eternity? (Mark 16:16) As Christians, I pray that we are not blinded to what God has promised will be. Yes, we are to love our neighbor, as well as God (Mark 12:29-31), but our love should not leave anyone to a destructive end.

SERMON NOTES

"TEACH US TO PRAY" (4)

Scripture Reading: 2 Kings 20:1-6

Matthew 6:9-13 (NKJV)

9 In this manner, therefore, pray:

Our Father in heaven, Hallowed be Your name.

10 Your kingdom come. Your will be done

On earth as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts,

As we forgive our debtors.

13 And do not lead us into temptation,

But deliver us from the evil one.

For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.
