Kyle's Korner

Have you ever pondered why we attend worship? For some of us (myself included), it's just what we do because it's what we've always done, no questions asked. But are there other reasons why we attend the services of the church as we do?

I read something to the affect of, "We don't attend services because we are perfect, but because we realize we are imperfect and in need of God's grace." Those we read about in the Old Testament brought their sacrifices to God with this very thought in mind, of making atonement for their sins. Our worship is a way of expressing our love and appreciation to God for the sacrifice of His Son. Our worship is a sacrifice of self, recognizing the greatest sacrifice ever made for us.

When we assemble together, we are not celebrating our perfections. Jesus once told of a Pharisee and a tax collector (Luke 18:9-14). The Pharisee thought very highly of himself and thanked God that he was not as the tax collector. The tax collector, instead, begged for mercy. Not surprisingly, it was not the Pharisee who was commended, but the lowly tax collector who recognized his imperfections before God.

I pray that we are assembled, not looking for perfection in ourselves or others, but recognizing who are and seeing why the cross was necessary.
