Kyle's Korner

As a Christian, how often do you pray? Do you pray for before meals or before bedtime? Do you pray when you're alone, or only when in the presence of others?

When and where we pray, and how often pray, tells us much about our Christianity. Praying often is a good sign that we truly desire to be nearer to God; whereas, a lack of prayer may show a neglect of God and doing the things He desires of us. Daniel is a good example of a man with a plan, so to speak. "Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went home. And in his upper room, with his windows open toward Jerusalem, he knelt down on his knees three times that day, and prayed and gave thanks before his God, as was his custom since early days" (Daniel 6:10, NKJV). For a long time, Daniel had been praying regularly to God, and a law against it was not enough to stop from praying to His Father.

How we pray is also of great importance. In Matthew 6, Jesus condemns praying lengthy prayers on street corners, as the Pharisees did. But, instead, He teaches us to pray in secret, so as to exhibit humility.

Examine your prayer life, and if you see need for improvement, work on it this week. If Jesus, the Son of God, needed to pray, then how much more should we?
