Kyle's Korner

In life, there are so many things we can and do worry about. Some of our worries are of a temporal nature, and some of them are of a more permanent nature. If we allow ourselves to do so, I guess we could literally worry ourselves about everything.

I have a friend from the Friday Night Singings that hasn't been able to come very often recently, but was able to come to the Charlotte Heights congregation's singing last Friday. He is 92 and dealing with multiple health issues at once; however, when you see you him, you would almost never guess. He has a hat that he loves to wear that bears the catchphrase, "Too Blessed to be Stressed," and he has, ever since I can remember, always had a smile on his face. Many of us came to greet him after the singing was over, and he told us of a recent doctor's visit when one particular doctor asked him how he could be so happy all of the time. His reply was something to the effect of, "When God has been with me and blessed me this much, what reason do I have not to be happy?"

In the famed "Sermon on the Mount," Jesus told His disciples not to worry (Matthew 6:25-34). He told them that, if God could care for the flowers of the field and the birds of the air, He would certainly care for us... and He does! He has cared for us and blessed us beyond what we deserve! If you struggle with worry, put your faith in Him. You won't be disappointed.
