The following words are inscribed over the doors of an old church building in Milan, Italy:

All that pleases is but for the moment
All that troubles is but for the moment
Nothing is important save that which is eternal

A verse I heard long ago reads as follows:

Only one life, t'will soon be past;
Only what's done for Christ will last.

And then there is this:

A million dollars and a bale of hay
Are worth the same on Judgment Day

What consumes your daily thoughts and deeds? Where and what are your priorities? Do your words and deeds reflect "the golden rule" (Mt.7:12) and "the first and second greatest commandments" (Mt.22:37-39)? Where are you when your church family gathers for Bible study, worship, and fellowship? Be honest, is it really more important?

Jesus said, "But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you. Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble" (Matthew 6:33-34, NKJV).

Note: We had a great EOC's Sunday Fellowship Dinner last week! Thanks to all who brought food and participated. "...prejerring one another" (Rom. 12:10).
