Is the Truth Important?

Most people think that religious truth is relative and determined by what people think. Surveys say only 22 percent believe in absolute truth. This means most people don't think the truth is very important. Is it?

12.5.21 – "Thy Will Be Done"

At the hardest moment of His life in the Garden of Gethsemane, the Lord Jesus said, "Thy will be done." We want to be able to say "Thy will be done" in our own lives. That means putting ourselves aside.

12.12.21 – "God Has Spoken"

When Jesus spoke in the first century, scribes took down His words. These words are in the New Testament and remain as authoritative as the day He first spoke them. God now speaks through His Son, and we must listen.

12.19.21 – "The Greatest Gift"

The greatest gift anyone can receive comes at the greatest price anyone can imagine. We are blessed because He bore a curse. We can have eternal life, because He gave up His life. By His stipes we are healed.

12.26.21 – "The Second Coming"

Jesus has promised to come again for His people. What will happen on that day? Will the dead come to life? Will we see Him in the air? Will the earth be destroyed? Will we be judged on that day?

The effective prayer of a righteous man can accomplish much. James 5:16 NKJV

GRATITUDE

It was gratitude that prompted an old man to visit an old broken down pier on the eastern seacoast of Florida. Every Friday night, until his death in 1973, he would return, walking slowly and slightly stooped with a large bucket of shrimp. The sea gulls would flock to this old man, and he would feed them from his bucket. Many years before, in October, 1942, Captain Eddie Rickenbacker was on a mission in a B-17 to deliver an important message to General Douglas MacArthur in New Guinea. But there was an unexpected detour which would hurl Captain Eddie into the most harrowing adventure of his life.

Somewhere over the South Pacific, the Flying Fortress became lost beyond the reach of radio. Fuel ran dangerously low, so the men ditched their plane in the ocean...For nearly a month Captain Eddie and his companions would fight the water, the weather, and the scorching sun. They spend many sleepless nights recoiling as giant sharks rammed their rafts. The largest raft was nine by five. The biggest shark...ten feet long.

But of all their enemies at sea, one provided most formidable: starvation. Eight days out, their rations were long gone or destroyed by the salt water. It would take a miracle to sustain them. And a miracle occurred. In Captain Eddie's own words, "Cherry," that was the B-17 pilot, Captain William Cherry, "read the service that afternoon, and we finished with a prayer for deliverance and a hymn of praise. There was some talk, but it tapered off in the oppressive heat. With my hat pulled down over my eyes to keep out some of the glare, I dozed off."

Now this is still Captain Rickenbacker talking..."Something landed on my head. I knew it was a sea gull. I don't know how I knew, I just knew. Everyone else knew too. No one said a word, but peering out from under my hat brim without moving my head, I could see the expression on their faces. They were staring at that gull. That gull meant food...if I could catch it."

And the rest, as they say, is history. Captain Eddie caught the gull. Its flesh was eaten. Its intestines were used for bait to catch fish. The survivors were sustained and their hopes renewed because a lone sea gull, uncharacteristically hundreds of miles from land, offered itself as a sacrifice. You know that Captain Eddie made it.

And now you also know...that he never forgot. Because every Friday night, about sunset...on a lonely stretch along the eastern Florida seacoast...you could see an old man walking...white-haired, bushy-eyebrowed, slightly bent. His bucket filled with shrimp was to feed the gulls...to remember that one which, on a day long past, gave itself without a struggle...like manna in the wilderness.

The Encourager

November 11, 2021

(Paul Auerdt, "The Old Man and the Gulls", Paul Harvey's The Rest of the Story, 1977, quoted in Heaven Bound Living, Knofel Stanton, Standard 1989.)

The Lord is Good (Psalms 100)

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord all ye lands!
Serve the Lord with gladness;
Come before His presence with singing.
Know ye that the Lord, He is God;
It is He who has made us, and not we ourselves,
We are His people and the sheep of His pasture.
Enter into His gates with thanksgiving,
And into his courts with praise.
Be thankful to Him, and bless His name.
For the Lord is good;
His mercy is everlasting,
And His truth endures to all generations.

Give Thanks With a Grateful Heart
