OLD TESTAMENT:

This Levite family had responsibility, the ark and sanctuary utensils to bear; death came quickly if they touched them, thus, they moved them with much care.

NEW TESTAMENT:

Because of this cloud of _____, let us lay aside every sin; and run with patience, the race to the very end.

OLD TESTAMENT:

The earth opened and and swallowed them.

KISSIMMEE CHURCH OF CHRIST

The Lamb and the Lion

By Bruce Daugherty, Beville Rd church of Christ

The Bible describes Jesus as being both a lamb (John 1:29; Revelation 5:6) and lion (Revelation 5:5). This seeming paradox gives us insight into the nature of the Son of God. He is the perfect lamb slain for the sins of the world, but He is also the lion who makes was on sin.

Jesus was a lamb as He received the little children who cam to Him (Matthew 19:14). He was a lamb as He invited men to come to Him in gentleness and meekness (Matthew 11:28-30). He was a lamb in His bearing the trials and beatings before His accusers (Isaiah 53:7; Matthew 26:63). We are redeemed with “the precious blood of Christ, as a lamb without blemish and without spot” (I Peter 1:19).

But Jesus was a lion as He faced the tempter (Matthew;1-11). He was a lion as He opposed Herond (Luke 13:32). He was a lion against religious error (Matthew 7:21-23). He was a lion against hard hearts that would not show mercy (Mark 3:5). He was a lion in His opposition to the vain traditions of the Pharisees (Mark 7:1-23; Matthew 23). He was a lion as He answered all the questions of those who came tempting Him (Matthew 22:15-46).

Seeting that this lamb/lion quality is the true nature of Christ, shouldn't Christians display the same characteristics? Jesus said His followers were to be “as wise as serpents and as innocent as doves” (Matthew 10:16). The apostle Paul was invoking this idea when he wrote: “Walk in wisdom toward those are outside, redeeming the time. Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned with salt that you may know how you ought to answer each one” (Colossians 4:5-6).

Are you a lamb and a lion as you follow the Savior?

ANNOUNCEMENTS.....

Sister Rosa Suarez has been hospitalized. Please pray for her recovery.

Dear Kissimmee Family,

As you may have heard, Osceola County officials have set in place a mandatory stay-at-home order effective until April 9th. While we previously planned on resuming services April 5th, it is no longer possible to do so.

Therefore, in light of the most recent developments, we have decided to suspend all Bible studies and worship services until April 12th at the earliest.

Sermons will continue to be prerecorded and uploaded to YouTube and Facebook on Saturday and Sunday morning, respectively.

It is our prayer that everyone will stay safe during these unusual times.
