

Kyle's Korner

DISTRACTION!

There are a million things in life that may distract us from our dreams and goals. Much is said for those who are able to remain focused on their intended goals.

No matter what we do, or intend to do, there is always something to distract us. Maybe it's something else that needs to be done, also; or maybe it's something we simply want to do instead.

A last minute telephone call... Chores... A spontaneous date with a friend... How many times have we laid down to sleep realizing the many things we have left undone until tomorrow?

When it comes to our faithfulness to God, have we been distracted from our intentions? Satan doesn't need to fully convince us to abandon our faith. He only needs to distract us - to get us off-course - just enough to pull us away from faithfulness.

Everything going on in our world right now may serve as nothing more than a distraction from our intended faithfulness.

Black Lives Matter... The debates over politics, race and gender... All of it may be nothing more than a distraction from our intended purpose and goals.

In the same way a defense lawyer only needs to prove reasonable doubt to win a case, Satan only needs to distract us from our work for Christ. He doesn't need to convince us that Christ isn't real or that God's Word is wrong in some way. He only needs to distract us to leave enough space in our lives for the world to seep in and drive a wedge between us and the God we love and serve.

Though it is easy for us to be distracted, I pray... Don't let Satan distract you. Remain focused on THE goal. Remain true to God and faithful always.
