

Kyle's Korner

In recent weeks, at one of our recent Friday Night Singings, I heard the prayer of a brother that has stuck with me since (or rather, a line from his prayer):

"Wear us out in thy service."

How often do we pray a prayer like that?! More importantly, do we really expect God that God will use us to the point that we may some day be "worn out?" I certainly hope that God will do just this with my life!

I hope that God will use me in preaching the gospel and share His message with the world, until I'm no longer able. I hope that God will use my talents as a singer and song leader until I no longer have the voice to do so. I hope He will use my ability to serve and encourage until I'm no longer living. I truly and sincerely hope that, in my time on Earth, God will help me to use whatever I have to bring glory and honor to His name.

The feeling of being worn out is not necessarily a desired feeling or one that is intended, unless, maybe, you are working out. But the idea of being worn out in God's service means that we are nearing the end of our journey. We are nearing the end of our goal. And we know what is awaiting the "worn out" because He has promised it to us - our reward in Heaven with Him.

I want to be "worn out" and "used up" in God's service! Then my existence will have met its intended end.

"Have thine own way, Lord! Have thine own way! Thou art the Potter; I am the clay. Mold me and make me After Thy will, While I am waiting, Yielded and still."
- Adelaide Pollard, 1902

FUN FACTS: ONLY ONCE IN THE BIBLE

Streets are mentioned in the Bible 136 times, but only once is a street mentioned by name. Can you recall the name of the street and within what context it is mentioned? - According to Acts 9:11, it was at the house of Judas on Straight Street in Damascus where Saul, who would later become known as Paul, would take refuge after his dramatic encounter with the Lord on the road. Ananias was then sent by the Lord to go to Paul to prepare him for his divine assignment as the apostle to the Gentiles. This is the only mention of a street with a proper name in Scripture.

To be as precise as possible, though, Jeremiah 37:21 makes reference to a 'bakers' street' but it does not appear to be a proper name. The passage in question states: "Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah to the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread from the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city was gone. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison."

HANNAH

THE MOTHER OF A PROPHET

1. HANNAH'S PRAYER AND DEVOTION

(1 Samuel 1 & 2)

- ✓ What was the cause for Hannah's sorrow? (1 Samuel 1:7)

- ✓ TRUE OR FALSE? When Hannah prayed to God, she had no intention of keeping the promise she made, to "lend" the child to the Lord.

- ✓ What is the meaning of Samuel's name? (1 Samuel 1:20)

- ✓ What interaction did Samuel have with his mother after he was left in Eli's care? (1 Samuel 2:18-20)

2. LIFE APPLICATION

- ✓ What lessons can we learn from Hannah and her willingness to follow through with her promise?
