

Kyle's Korner

In the beginning of the COVID pandemic, I remember not knowing what was ahead for myself and Marissa. Though we each had multiple different jobs between us, none of those guaranteed pay for an extended period of not being able to work. As you can imagine, this caused a great deal of worry, to the point that I literally was sick for a 24 hour period from just the worry, alone. This is what I often reference as the moment I truly learned what faith was... When you can't, at all, see what tomorrow will be like and really what the future holds.

The one great thing in all of this is that God provided for our needs, and actually much more than we could have expected. Granted, things do not always turn out as planned, and certainly there were some great losses in this time, as well. Still, God provided for our immediate needs, and for this I am grateful.

There are others mentioned who had to put their faith in God to supply their needs when they, like us, could not see the future. Naomi, of the Book of Ruth, is a great example. She lost her husband and her sons. In Ruth 1:20, Naomi asks to be called Mara, "for the Almighty has dealt bitterly with me" (NKJV). Yet, as Ruth continued with her, she was later blessed with a grandchild and was part of the lineage of Jesus. She could not see the future, but God provided for her needs, and more!

And what of Esther, who was initially fearful to go before King Ahasuerus (her husband) on behalf of the lives of her people? Or how about Moses, who was very much unsure of his leadership abilities? Or what about Joseph, who seemingly lost everything, being sold into slavery, and later became second in command in Egypt to only Pharaoh, himself? Surely, these could not see the future or how God would use them to fulfill His will. Yet, they remained faithful and were rewarded for it.

We may not be able to see the future, but if we trust in the One Who is in control of the future, we can know we are safe in His care and our souls are in His keeping.
