BROTHER WINFORD DANIEL

We lost one of our dear members this last week. He was not able to attend services the last few years, but he will certainly be missed. His funeral was yesterday, and since most of our congregation wasn't able to be there, I thought I would share some of the things from my lesson... Some of the lessons I have learned from his life. Hugh Phifer and I visited him several times, and much of this is drawn from those visits.

HIS MARRIAGE... Bro. Daniel was a happily married man. Even after Barbara died, she held a special place in his heart. He spoke of her with so much love and affection... Their marriage was the kind of marriage described in Ephesians 5:22-33 - the kind that was of the same pattern as the church and the relationship between Christ and His bride. Much can be learned from the love of bro. Daniel for Barbara and his love for the church.

HIS FAITH... Bro. Daniel always had an open Bible next to his chair. Even when it became difficult for him to see, he would still try to read it, seeking to apply its wisdom to his life. If only every Christian would study their Bibles daily as bro. Daniel did.

HIS CHURCH ATTENDANCE... Bro. Daniel attended the services of the church as long as he was physically able, and when he wasn't able to come he missed it greatly. Many times he came when he didn't feel good because he hated to miss. The reason? He must have loved God with all of his heart, and his brothers and sisters in Christ, as well. (Luke 10:27) He sought to be an encouragement to others in his presence among the saints (Hebrews 10:24-25), and he was certainly a great encouragement to me as a young preacher.

We will all miss bro. Daniel, but I hope these few things from his life inspire us to be better Christians.
