

Kyle's Korner

Matthew 5:48 (NKJV)

"Therefore you shall be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect."

What does it mean to be perfect, from a spiritual standpoint? What exactly is God calling us to, and how can we achieve it?

First, taking a closer look at this verse, let's recognize the context. It is part of Jesus' "Sermon on the Mount." He has just taught about the need for His followers to love their enemies and to do good to those who use and persecute them. In following this, as well as His previous commands, we will be perfected in Him. But how so?

Fulfilling the will of Christ also means fulfilling the will of God. Christ's intent in coming to Earth was to do His Father's will. (Luke 2:49; John 5:30) As Christ was perfect in keeping the laws of God and fulfilling God's will, we are made perfect when we do the same.

But wait! Aren't humans fallible? Don't we still make mistakes from time to time? Yes, we are and do. Does this mean that Jesus is wrong in saying we will be perfect if we do our Father's will? No! Though we are fallible and make mistakes, the promise of Christ is true. But it's not because of anything we have done, but because of what Christ has done for us.

In a parallel manner to the animal sacrifices offered by the Israelites, Hebrews 9 tells us that Jesus offered Himself but once, that He might "put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself." (v. 26) "...Christ was offered once to bear the sins of many." (v. 28) Because Jesus was perfect in how He lived, He was fully capable of becoming the perfect sacrifice for our sins. And though we are not perfect in keeping the law of God, we are FORGIVEN! Thus, when we stand in judgment before God, our sins are taken away, and what Jesus said would be will be. Because of His sacrifice and our obedience, we may stand in His righteousness, sinless before God.
