"ROLL THE GOSPEL CHARIOT ALONG"

Do you remember the song we sang as kids: "Roll the Gospel Chariot"? Let's take a moment to ponder the thought and meaning behind the song.

Have you ever thought of yourself as a chariot driver? As Christians, we are in control of the chariot. We get to decide how many get to ride in this chariot, the course it follows and its ending destination. As the song suggests, we, as Christians, are expected to pick up souls along the way.

The first verses of the song encourage us to pick up brothers and sisters. But what does that mean, exactly? As Christians, we should consider how to encourage and uplift our brethren in Christ. We may do this in our attendance. (Hebrews 10:24-25) We also do this by edifying, or building them up in various ways, encouraging throughout life. (Ephesians 4:16) As we lift one another up in encouragement, thought and prayer, these brothers and sisters are also given the opportunity to ride in our chariot.

Along the way we will also encounter sinners. What do we do? Do we pass them by, in too big of a rush to stop, or do we pick them up? The choice is ours, but I think it's easy for us to figure out what God would have us do. Jesus came with the purpose of saving souls, and He has passed this mission on to His disciples. (Matthew 28:19-20; Mark 16:15-16) As we see those who are still in their sins, we are to teach them, winning their souls to Jesus, giving them an opportunity also to ride in the gospel chariot.

As we are traveling, picking up these brothers, sisters and sinners, Satan will stand in the road to stop us. What do we do? Yep! You've got it! "We'll ROLL RIGHT OVER HIM!" He can't stop us unless we let him.

Remain faithful & Roll that Gospel Chariot Along!
