Study. But How?

"Did you behave in worship?" asked a mother. "Yes ma'am," answered her boy, "I even heard the lady behind me say, 'I've never seen a child behave like that in all my life!'"

We need to be careful how we interpret the word of another. Such is especially true with the Word of God. It is to be rightly divided, literally, "cut straight," or handled properly (2 Timothy 2:15). Hopefully, the following suggestions will help us in this wonderful challenge.

First, categorize what is read. Try to capture the purpose of the book. Is it history, poetry, biography, or prophecy?

Second, organize what is read. Pay careful attention to the context. Give notice to any "pivot terms" (i.e. therefore, for, in like manner).

Third, evangelize when reading. The Bible is a book of redemption, penned for our salvation (2 Timothy 3:15-17; James 1:25). Study with eternity in mind.

Finally, memorize key verses. The more we run a passage across our hearts, the more we will glean from the passage.

Nothing can be more exciting! Nothing is more needed! Hopefully, the Lord can describe you and me by saying, "His delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night" (Psalm 1:2).

God Won't Ask

Via church of Christ Rosemark, TN

God won't ask the square footage of your house, but He'll ask how many people you welcomed into your home.

God won't ask about the clothes you had in your closet, but He'll ask how many you helped to clothe.

God won't ask what your highest salary was, but He'll ask if you compromised your character to obtain it.

God won't ask what your job title was, but He'll ask if you performed your job to the best of your ability.

God won't ask how many friends you had, but He'll ask how many people to whom you were a friend.

God won't ask what neighborhood you lived in, but He'll ask how you treated your neighbors.

God won't ask about the color of your skin, but He'll ask about the content of your character.

God won't ask why it took you so long to seek salvation, but He'll lovingly take you to your mansion in heaven and not the gates of Hell.

God won't ask how many people you forwarded this to, but He'll ask if you were ashamed to pass it on to your friends.

Good FRIENDS are hard to find, harder to leave, and impossible to forget.

Matthew 5:14-16 (NIV)

You are the light of the world. A city on a hill cannot be hidden. ¹⁵Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. ¹⁶In the same way, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven.
